Greg Springer Promoted to CFO at CTC

BRAINERD, MN – Greg Springer has been named the Chief Financial Officer at Consolidated Telecommunications Company (CTC).

Springer brings over 20 years of experience to the position, most recently as Director of Finance at CTC. Prior to starting with the cooperative in 2008, he spent six years with Midwest Telephone Company in Parkers Prairie and two years with Unicef. Springer will be responsible for overseeing all accounting functions including budgeting, forecasting, financial reporting, and supervision of the Finance team.

“I look forward to working with Greg in his new position,” said Kristi Westbrook, CTC’s CEO/General Manager. “I would also like to extend my deepest and sincerest thanks to Mark Roach as he transitions into retirement in early March. We are very fortunate to have such a robust finance team at CTC.”

Springer graduated from Bemidji State University with a B.S. in Accounting. He is currently the treasurer for Smiles for Jake, a local nonprofit organization, and a member of Trinity Lutheran Church in Brainerd. Springer has been active in coaching youth sports and is also a youth sports official.

CTC is a technology advisor and full-service telecommunications company based in Brainerd, MN. Formed in 1952, CTC has grown into a complete communications provider offering telephone, high-speed internet, digital television, and IT services to businesses and individuals throughout central and northern Minnesota.
