Star Tribune names CTC a 2023 Top 200 Workplace

Consolidated Telephone Company (CTC) recently has been named one of the top 200 Workplaces in Minnesota by Star Tribune.

To qualify for the Star Tribune Workplaces, a company must have more than 50 employees in Minnesota. Rankings were compiled purely based on employee responses.

Over 5,000 companies were invited to participate. The rankings were based on survey information collected by Energage, an independent company specializing in employee engagement and retention.

CTC ranked 68th place on the small company list.

“Being named in the top 200 of places to work in Minnesota is a direct testament to the culture that is created by our entire team at CTC. The employee’s dedication to member services and community development makes it a workplace that is filled with pride and loyalty,” said CTC CEO Kristi Westbrook.

Top Workplaces recognizes the most progressive companies in Minnesota based on employee opinions measuring engagement, organizational health, and satisfaction. The analysis includes responses from 124,719 employees at Minnesota public, private and nonprofit organizations.

The 2023 Top Workplaces ranking list will be published in the Star Tribune Top Workplaces special section on Sunday, June 18. It can also be viewed at startribune.com/mn-top-workplaces.

CTC is a technology advisor and full-service telecommunications company based in Brainerd, MN. Formed in 1952, CTC has grown into a complete communications provider offering
